CASE NO. CR06-313 RSL

DETENTION ORDER

Offense charged:

False Statement in Application and Use of Transport, in violation of Title 18,
U.S.C., Section 1542.

Date of Detention Hearing: September 14, 2006

The Court, having conducted an uncontested detention hearing pursuant to Title 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds that no condition or combination of conditions which the defendant can meet will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of any other person and the community. The Government was represented by Karyn Johnson. The defendant was represented by Brian Tsuchida.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

- (1) The defendant represents a risk of nonappearance due to the following:
he is a citizen and national of Mexico; he has no ties to this district; his ties to the Western District of Washington are unknown/unverified.
- (2) The defendant does not contest detention.

Thus, there is no condition or combination of conditions that would reasonably assure future court appearances.

It is therefore ORDERED:

- (1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correctional facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences, or being held in custody pending appeal;
- (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;
- (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the correctional facility in which Defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and
- (4) The clerk shall direct copies of this order to counsel for the United States, to counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States Pretrial Services Officer.

DATED this 18th day of September, 2006.

MONICA J. BENTON
United States Magistrate Judge
